Supplement to the instructions for use

This supplement is valid for the following applications and software versions:

draegerware-zms-app

Version: 2026.1.0

Components of the software used in this Product are insofar as listed below free and open source software licensed under the applicable terms. The copyright holders usually disclaim any warranties and exclude any liability for their free and open source software.

Where stipulated that a source code is to be made available you can find it either online or upon request, we will supply the source code of these free and open source software components on a data medium. In case certain licenses give you the option to exchange the associated software element such change is not prohibited by us. However, given the nature of our products, their registration and security requirements editing the software of certain products might be depending on you contacting us. Be advised that the software in its specific set up may be (and often is) part of the product registration which is the basis for the legal use of the product. When changing the software of such products you become the manufacturer of the new product with all associated responsibilities and liabilities. This might e.g. entail product liability, new registrations including declaration of conformity, market and post market surveillance, update and cybersecurity monitoring and others. Additionally, we don't assume any liability with regards to the changed software and its implications to the functionality and security of the software or the product as a whole.

We further reserve the right to and might be obligated to inform the appropriate authorities about such changed products in the market. The product must be clearly identified as changed and our labels and other manufacturer indications must be removed. Please observe any additional documents associated with this product (e.g. acknowledgements, notices, additional license documents).

Apache License Version 2.0, January 2004 http://www.apache.org/licenses/TERMS_AND_CONDITIONS_FOR_USE,_REPRODUCTION,_AND_DISTRIBUTION_1.html

Definitions. "Licensee" shall mean the terms and conditions for use, reproduction, and distribution as defined by Sections 1 through 9 of this document. "Licensor" shall mean the copyright owner or entity authorized by the copyright owner that is granting the License. "Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and all other entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with that entity. For the purposes of this definition, "control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract or otherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity. "You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entity exercising permissions granted by this License. "Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files. "Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanical transformation or translation of a Source form, including but not limited to compiled object code, generated documentation, and conversions to other media types. "Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source or Object form, made available under the License, as indicated by a copyright notice that is included in or attached to the work (an example is provided in the Appendix below). "Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source or Object form, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which the editorials, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposes of this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remain separable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the Work and for which the separate work remains a derivative work as described above; the Work is not considered to be modified because it contains separate works provided the separate works do not link directly back to the Work. "Work" shall not include anything that is integers, pre-processor directives, or comments in the Work, unless such integers, pre-processor directives, or comments are intended to be part of the Work by the copyright owner or an individual Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf of the copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted" means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, the Licensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution." "Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entity on behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor and subsequently incorporated into the Work. 2. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute the Work and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form. 3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by their Contribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If you institute patent litigation against any party (including without limitation the copyright owner, the patent owner, or any contributor) alleging that the Work constitutes infringement of your patent, You must notify the copyright owner, the patent owner, or any contributor included in the Work of a contribution by You that is infringing your patent and provide such party with a copy of this License to facilitate a license under such patent terms. 4. Redistribution. You may reproduce and distribute copies of the Work or Derivative Works therefrom in any medium, with or without modifications, and in Source or Object form, provided that You meet the following conditions: a. You must give any other recipients of the Work or Derivative Works a copy of this License; and b. You must cause any modified files to carry prominent notices stating that You changed the files; and c. You must retain, in the Source form of any Derivative Works that You Distribute, all copyright, patent, trademark, and attribution notices contained within the Source form of the Work, excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part of the Derivative Works; and d. If the Work includes a "NOTICE" file as part of its distribution, then any Derivative Works that You Distribute must include a readable copy of the attribution notices contained within such NOTICE file, excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part of the Derivative Works. In at least one of the following places: within a NOTICE file distributed as part of the Derivative Works; within the Source form or documentation, if provided along with the Derivative Works; or, within a display generated by the Derivative Works, if and wherever such third-party notices normally appear. The contents of the NOTICE file are for informational purposes only and do not modify the License. You may add Your own attribution notices within Derivative Works that You distribute, alongside or as an addendum to the NOTICE text from the Work, provided that such additional attribution notices cannot be construed as modifying the License. You may add Your own copyright statement to Your modifications and may provide additional or different license terms and conditions for use, reproduction, or distribution of Your modifications, or for any such Derivative Works as a whole, provided Your use, reproduction, and distribution of the Work otherwise complies with the conditions stated in this License. 5. Submission of Contributions. Unless You explicitly state otherwise, any Contribution intentionally submitted for inclusion in the Work by You to the copyright owner, the patent owner, or any contributor included in the Work is a Contribution. You represent and warrant that You have the right to submit such Contributions. 6. Trademarks. This License does not grant permission to use the trade names, trademarks, service marks, or product names of the Licensor, except as required for reasonable and customary use in describing the origin of the Work and reproducing the content of the NOTICE file. 7. Disclaimer of Warranty. Unless required by applicable law or agreed to in writing, Licensor provides the Work (and each Contributor provides its Contributions) on an "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditions of TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. You are solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using or redistributing the Work and assume any risks associated with Your exercise of permissions under this License. 8. Limitation of Liability. In no event and under no legal theory, whether in tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise, unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grossly negligent acts) or agreed to in writing, shall any Contributor be liable to You for damages, including any direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as a result of this License or out of the use or inability to use the Work (including loss of goodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and all other commercial damages or losses), even if such Contributor has been advised of the possibility of such damages. 9. Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While this License is based on a "free software" model, You are permitted to add the following limitation to your accepting of this License, with the understanding that You accept this License "as is" in accordance with the limitation: END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPENDIX: How to apply the Apache License to your work. To apply the Apache License to your work, attach the following boilerplate notice, with the fields enclosed by brackets "[]": replaced with your own identifying information. (Don't include the brackets!) The text should be enclosed in the appropriate comment syntax for the file format. We also recommend that a file or class name and description of purpose be included on the same "printed page" as the copyright notice for easier identification within third-party archives. EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED PURPOSES OF ENHANCING THE WORK IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, YOU MUST NOT ALTER, MODIFY, OR IN ANY WAY EXPLOIT THE WORK PROVIDED BY THE LICENSOR, NOR MUST YOU DISTRIBUTE THE WORK PROVIDED BY THE LICENSOR. IN ADDITION, YOU MUST AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF THIS LICENSE. TO THE EXTENT THAT THIS LICENSE MAY BE CONSIDERED TO BE A CONTRACT, THE LICENSOR GRANTS YOU THE RIGHTS CONTAINED HERE IN CONSIDERATION OF YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF SUCH TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

1. Definitions: a. "Adaptation" means a work based upon the Work, or upon the Work and other pre-existing works, such as a translation, adaptation, derivative work, arrangement of music or other alterations of a literary or artistic work, or phonogram or performance and includes cinematographic adaptations or any other form in which the Work may be recast, transformed, or adapted, including in any form recognizable derived from the original, except that a work that constitutes a Collection will not be considered an Adaptation for the purpose of this License. For the avoidance of doubt, where the Work is a musical work, the synchronization of the Work in timed relation with a moving image ("Syncing") will be considered an Adaptation for the purposes of this License. b. "Collection" means a work consisting of multiple separate and independent works (each of which is also a separate and independent work in itself) which are assembled into a collective whole. A work that constitutes a Collection will not be considered an Adaptation (as defined above) for the purposes of this License. c. "Derivative" means to make available to the public the original and copies of the Work or Adaptation, as appropriate, through or other transfer of ownership. d. "Licensor" means the individual, individuals, entity or entities that offer(s) the Work under the terms of this License. e. "Original Author" means, in the case of a literary or artist work, the individual, individuals, entity or entities who created the Work; if no individual or entity can be identified, the publisher, principal distributor, or other persons who act, sing, direct, produce, play in, interpret, perform, or otherwise convey literary, dramatic, musical, and other intellectual works in a physical medium, including in digital form, such as computer software, audio recordings, audiovisual recordings, performances, exhibits, lectures, and educational institutions, as well as in oral form; the author of derivative works, adaptations or other versions of protected works (such as a translation or manuscript); and other persons who dedicate similar rights to certain materials prior to them being performed, distributed, or otherwise used or displayed for the first time in a public way. f. "Work" means the original, unmodified and complete version of the piece of content provided by the original licensor, or a derivative of that version produced by the licensor or another person or entity under the terms of this license, and does not include other works in the same category but of different origin.

a lecture, address, sermon or other work of the same nature; a dramatic or dramatico-musical work; a choreographic work or entertainment in dumb show; a musical composition with or without words; a cinematographic work to which are assimilated works expressed by a process analogous to cinematography; a work of drawing, painting, architecture, sculpture, engraving or lithography; a photographic work to which are assimilated works expressed by a process analogous to photography; a work of applied art; an illustration, map, plan, sketch or three-dimensional work relative to geography, topography, architecture or science; a performance; a broadcast; a phonogram; a compilation of data to the extent it is protected as a copyrightable work; or a work performed by a variety or circus performer to the extent it is not otherwise considered a literary or artistic work. g. "You" means an individual or entity exercising rights under this License who has not previously violated the terms of this License with respect to the Work or, who has received express permission from the Licensee to exercise rights under this License despite a previous violation. h. "Public Perform" means to perform the public recitations by the public those public performances, by any means or process, including by wire or wireless means or public digital performances; including the right to make copies of the Work for the purpose of making such copies available to the public; including the right to make copies of the Work for the purpose of advertising or promotional performances of the Work, including by public digital performances to broadcast and rebroadcast the Work by any means including signs, sounds or images; i. "Reproduce" means to make copies of the Work by any means including unlimited by sound or visual recordings and the right of fixation and reproducing fixations of the Work, including storage of a protected performance or phonogram in digital form or other electronic medium. 2. Fair Dealing Rights. Nothing in this License is intended to reduce, limit, or restrict any rights that are provided for in connection with the copyright protection under copyright law or other applicable laws. 3. License Grant. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, Licensee hereby grants You a worldwide, royalty-free, non-exclusive, perpetual (for the duration of the applicable copyright) license to exercise the rights in the Work as stated below: a. To Reproduce the Work, to incorporate the Work into one or more Collections, and to Reproduce the Work as incorporated in the Collections; b. to create and Reproduce Adaptations provided that any such Adaptation, including any translation in any medium, takes reasonable steps to clearly label, demarcate or otherwise identify that changes were made to the original Work. For example, a translation of the Work would be considered an Adaptation and would be subject to section 1.c. to Distribute and Publicly Perform the Work and/or any Adaptations as incorporated in Collections; c. to Distribute and Publicly Perform Adaptations. The above rights include the right to make such modifications as are technically necessary to exercise the rights in other media and formats. Subject to Section 8(0), all rights not expressly granted by Licensee are hereby reserved, including but not limited to the rights set forth in Section 4(0). 4. Restrictions. The license granted in Section 3(0) above is expressly made subject to and limited by the following restrictions: a. You may Distribute or Publicly Perform the Work only under the terms of this License. You must include a copy of, or the Uniform Resource Identifier (URI) for, this License with every copy of the Work You Distribute or Publicly Perform. You may not offer or impose any terms on the Work that restrict the terms of this License or the ability of the recipient of the Work to exercise the rights granted to that recipient under the terms of the License. You may not sublicense the Work. You must keep intact all notices that refer to this License and to the disclaimer of warranties with every copy of the Work You Distribute or Publicly Perform. You may not impose any effective technological measures on the Work that restrict the ability of a recipient of the Work from You to exercise the rights granted to that recipient under the terms of the License. This Section 4(a) applies to the Work as incorporated in a Collection, but does not require the Collection apart from the Work itself to be subject to the terms of this License. b. You may not charge additional fees for the Work or for any Adaptations or Collections. You may, however, charge a fee for distribution of the Work if such fee is reasonably related to the cost of distribution and does not exceed the amount of compensation received by You for the Work. c. You may not exercise any of the rights granted to You in Section 3 above in any manner that is primarily intended or directed toward commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. The exchange of the Work for other copyrighted works by means of digital file-sharing or otherwise shall not be considered to be intended for or directed toward commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. d. If You Distribute, or Publicly Perform the Work or any Adaptations or Collections. You must, unless a request has been made pursuant to Section 4(a), keep intact all copyright notices for the Work and provide, reasonable to the medium or means You are utilizing: (i) the name of the Original Author (or pseudonym, if applicable) if supplied, and/or if the Original Author and/or Licensee designate another party or parties (e.g., a sponsor institution, publishing entity, journal) for attribution; (ii) the notice of copyright notice, terms of service or by other reasonable means, the name of such party or parties; (iii) the title of the Work if supplied; (iv) to the extent reasonably practicable, the date of first publication or distribution of the Work in the Adaptation; (v) if applicable, a link to the Uniform Resource Identifier (URI) for the original Work and the Original Author's URI; e. The credit required in this Section 4(b) may be implemented in a reasonable manner, provided, however, in the event a credit for an Adaptation or Collection appears, then as part of credits and in a manner at least as prominent as the credits for the other contributing authors. For the avoidance of doubt, You may only use the credit required by this Section for the purpose of attribution in the manner set out above and, by exercising Your rights under this License, You may not implicitly disclaim or imply any connection with, sponsorship or endorsement by the Original Author, Licensee and/or Attribution Parties, as appropriate, of You or Your use of the Work, without the separate, express prior written permission of the Original Author, Licensee and/or Attribution Parties. f. For the avoidance of doubt: i. Non-wavable Compulsory License Schemes. In those jurisdictions in which the right to collect royalties through any statutory or compulsory licensing scheme cannot be waived, the Licensee reserves the exclusive right to collect such royalties for any exercise by You of the rights granted under this License; ii. Waivable Compulsory License Schemes. In those jurisdictions in which the right to collect royalties through any statutory or compulsory licensing scheme can be waived, the Licensee reserves the exclusive right to collect such royalties for any exercise by You of the rights granted under this License. Specifically, the right to waive the right to collect royalties through any statutory or compulsory licensing scheme in those jurisdictions in which the Licensee reserves the right to collect royalties, whether individually or, in the event that the Licensee is a member of a collecting society that administers voluntary licensing schemes, via that society, from any exercise by You of the rights granted under this License that is for a purpose or use which is otherwise than noncommercial as permitted under Section 4(c); iii. Except as otherwise agreed in writing by the Licensee or as may be otherwise permitted by applicable law, if You Reproduce, Distribute or Publicly Perform the Work either by itself or as part of any Adaptations or Collections, You must not distort, mutilate, modify or take other derogatory action in relation to the Work which would be prejudicial to the Original Author's honor or reputation. Licensee agrees that in those jurisdictions (e.g., Japan), in which any exercise of the right granted in Section 3(b) of this License (the right to make Adaptations) would be deemed to be a distortion, mutilation, modification or other derogatory action prejudicial to the Original Author's honor or reputation, the Licensee will waive or not assert, as appropriate, this Section, to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable national law, to enable You to reasonably exercise Your right under Section 3(b) of this License (right to make Adaptations) but not otherwise. 5. Representations, Warranties and Disclaimer UNLESS OTHERWISE MUTUALLY AGREED TO BY THE PARTIES IN WRITING, THE LICENSOR MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND CONCERNING THE WORK EXCEPTED, IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT. THE LICENSOR MAKES NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, WHETHER OR NOT DISCOVERABLE. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OF IMPLIED WARRANTIES, SO SUCH EXCLUSION MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU. 6. Limitation on Liability EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT WILL LICENSOR BE LIABLE TO YOU ON ANY LEGAL THEORY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS LICENSE OR THE USE OF THE WORK, EVEN IF LICENSOR HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. 7. Termination a. This License and the rights granted hereunder will terminate automatically upon any breach by You of the terms of this License. Individuals or entities who have received Adaptations or Collections from You under this License, however, will not have their licenses terminated provided such individuals or entities remain in full compliance with those licenses. Sections 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 will survive any termination of this License. b. Subject to the above terms and conditions, the license granted here is perpetual (for the duration of the applicable copyright in the Work). Notwithstanding the above, Licensee reserves the right to release the Work under different license terms or to stop distributing the Work at any time, provided, however, that any such election does not affect the rights of licensees who have received the Work or who have been granted a license under this License. c. Each time You Distribute or Publicly Perform an Adaptation, Licensee offers to the recipient a license to the original Work on the same terms and conditions as the license granted to You under this License. c. If any provision of this License is granted or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this License, and without further action by the parties to this agreement, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable. d. No term or provision of this License shall be deemed waived and no breach consented to unless such waiver or consent shall be in writing and signed by the party to be charged with such waiver or consent. e. This License constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the Work licensed here. There are no understandings, agreements or representations with respect to the Work not specified here. This License was not drafted utilizing the principles of the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works (as amended on September 28, 1979), the Rome Convention of 1964, the WIPO Copyright Treaty or the WIPO Performer's Protection Treaty. As a result, the rights and limitations set forth in this License may differ from the rights and limitations set forth in any of those treaties. The rights and limitations set forth in this License are sought to be enforced according to the corresponding provisions of the implementation of those treaty provisions in the applicable national law. If the standard suite of rights granted under applicable copyright law includes additional rights not granted under this License, such additional rights are deemed to be included in the License; this License is not intended to restrict the license of any rights under applicable law. Creative Commons Notice: Creative Commons is not a party to this License, and makes no warranty whatsoever in connection with the Work. Creative Commons will not be liable to You or any party on any legal theory for any damages whatsoever, including without limitation any general, special, incidental or consequential damages arising in connection to this license. Notwithstanding the foregoing the two (2) sentences, if Creative Commons has expressly identified itself as the Licensor hereunder, it shall have all rights and obligations of Licensor. Except for the limited purpose of indicating to the public that the Work is licensed under the CCPL, Creative Commons does not authorize the use by either party of the trademark "Creative Commons" or any related trademark or logo of Creative Commons without the prior written consent of Creative Commons. Any permitted use will be in compliance with Creative Commons' then-current trademark usage guidelines, as may be published on its website or otherwise made available upon request from time to time. For the avoidance of doubt, this trademark restriction does not form part of the License. Creative Commons may be contacted at <http://creativecommons.org/>.

Eclipse Public License - v.2.0 THE ACCOMPANYING PROGRAM IS PROVIDED UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS ECLIPSE PUBLIC LICENSE ("AGREEMENT"). ANY USE, REPRODUCTION OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM CONSTITUTES RECIPIENT'S ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT. 1. DEFINITIONS "Contribution" means: a) in the case of the initial Contributor, the initial content distributed under this Agreement, and b) in the case of each subsequent Contributor: i) to the Program, or ii) to the Program plus any additions or changes to the Program made available by that subsequent Contributor in accordance with its contribution; "Contributor" means any person or entity that distributes the Program; "Licensed Patent" means patent claims licensable by a Contributor which are necessarily infringed by the use or sale of its Contribution alone, or when combined with the Program; "Program" means the Contributions distributed in accordance with this Agreement; "Recipient" means anyone who receives the Program under this Agreement, including Contributors, Distributors, and users; "Source Code" means the preferred form of the contents of the Program, including the original code and any additions, deletions, or other modifications, as a whole, an original work of authorship; "Modified Works" shall mean any work in Source Code or other form that results from an addition to, deletion from, or modification of the contents of the Program, including, for purposes of clarity, any new file in Source Code form that contains any content of the Program. Modified Works shall not include works that contain only declarations, interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solely in each case in order to link, bind by name, or subclass the Program or Modified Works thereof; "Distribute" means the acts of a) distributing or b) making available in any manner that enables the transfer of a copy; "Source Code" means the form of a Program preferred for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files; "Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License, Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including any exceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initial Contributor. 2. GRANT OF RIGHTS a) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, and distribute and sublicense the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, and derivative works thereof, and to permit others to do so, without prior permission or fee. The rights granted under this Agreement are limited to the specific Contribution identified by the copyright notice in the Source Code. Any distribution of the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by the Licensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any other combinations which include the Contribution. No hardware or software is licensed hereunder. c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants the licenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances are provided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe the patent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claims brought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectual property rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising the rights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient hereby assumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectual property rights needed, if any. For example, if a third party patent license is required to allow Recipient to distribute the Program, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that license before distributing the Program. d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it has sufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grant the copyright license set forth in this Agreement. e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, no Contributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other than those set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient's receipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License (if permitted under the terms of Section 3). 3. REQUIREMENTS a) If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then: a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, in accordance with section 3.2, and b) if the Program is available as binary code, then the Program must be accompanied by Source Code that can be used to regenerate the Program; b) the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a license different than this Agreement, provided that such license i) effectively disowns on behalf of all other Contributors all warranties and conditions, express and implied, including warranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, and implied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose; ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors all liability for damages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits; iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rights in the Source Code under section 3.2; and iv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by any party to be under a license that satisfies the requirements of this section 3. 3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code: a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if the Program (i) is combined with other material in a separate file or files made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initial Contributor attached to the Source Code the notice described in Exhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made available under the terms of such Secondary Licenses, and b) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy of the Program. 3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent, trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations of liability ("notices") contained within the Program from any copy of the Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may add their own appropriate notices. 4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTION a) Contributors that make commercial distributions of software may accept certain restrictions with respect to the use, distribution and/or modification of the Program. The Contributors may, if they so desire, offer a license to the Program on a commercial product offering, and do so in a manner which does not preclude potential liability for such Contributors ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify every other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor in writing of such claim; and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and any related settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor may participate in any such claim at its own expense. For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial product offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If that Commercial Contributor makes performance claims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibility, alone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor may not have the right to control the defense of such claim, and the Commercial Contributor may not terminate this Agreement. 5. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AS EXPLAINED IN SECTION 3.2 FOR THE ECLIPSE PUBLIC LICENSE, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes all risks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement, including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors, compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programs or equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations. 6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE), ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE USE OR PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM OR THE RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE. 7. GENERAL If a provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed if possible to make such provision valid and enforceable. If recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Program itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient agrees to cease use and distribution of the Program as soon as reasonably practicable. However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and any licenses granted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue and survive. Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of this Agreement, but in order to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted and may only be modified in the following manner. The Agreement Steward reserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) of this Agreement from time to time. No one other than the Agreement Steward has the right to modify this Agreement. The Eclipse Project may publish revised or new versions of the Eclipse Public License as follows: i) the Eclipse Project may publish the revised license on its website; ii) the Eclipse Project may provide a link to the revised license from the Eclipse Public License page; iii) the Eclipse Project may include the revised license in any distribution which originates from the Eclipse Project; and iv) the Eclipse Project may include the revised license in any distribution which includes code controlled by the Eclipse Project. Contributors may always be Distribution subject to the version of the Agreement under which it was received. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published, Contributor may elect to Distribute the Program (including its Contributions) under the new version. Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and (2)(b) above, Recipient receives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of any Contributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication, estoppel or otherwise. All rights in the Program not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to be enforceable by any entity that is not a Contributor or Recipient. No third-party beneficiary rights are created under this Agreement. Exhibit A - Form of Secondary Licenses Notice This Source Code may also be made available under the following Secondary Licenses, which conditions for such availability set forth in the Eclipse Public License, v. 2.0 are satisfied: (name license(s), version(s), and exceptions or additional permissions here). .. Specifically including a copy of this Agreement, including the Exhibit A is not sufficient to license the Source Code under Secondary Licenses. If it is not possible or desirable to put the notice in a particular file, then You may include the notice in a location (such as a LICENSE file in a relevant directory) where a recipient would be likely to look for such notice. You may add additional accurate notices of copyright ownership.

GNU Lesser General Public License ===== Version 2.1, February 1999 Copyright (C) 1991, 1999 Free Software Foundation, Inc. 59 Temple Place, Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307 USA Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copies of this license document, but changing it is not allowed. [This is the first released version of the Lesser GPL. It also counts as the successor of the GNU Library Public License, version 2, hence the version number 2.1.] Preamble ----- The licenses for most software are designed to take away your freedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public Licenses are intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software--to make sure the software is free for all its users. This license, the Lesser General Public License, is the better strategy to ensure that any particular case based on the explanation below, will remain speech of free software. We are preferring to offer you this license or the ordinary General Public License. This license is designed to protect the freedom of users to run, study, copy, modify, distribute and link to the library. It is not designed to protect your rights as a developer. For example, if you distribute objects or the library, or if you link other code with the library, you must provide complete object files to the recipients, so that they can relink them with the library after making changes to the library and recompling it. And you must show them these terms so that they, too, receive or can get the source code. If you link other code with the library, you must provide complete object files to the recipients, so that they can relink them with the library after making changes to the library and recompling it. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. We protect your rights with a two-step method: (1) we copyright the library, and (2) we offer you this license, which gives you legal permission to copy, distribute and/or modify the library. To protect each distributor, we want to make it very clear that there is no warranty for the free library. Also, if the library is modified by someone else and passed on, the recipients should know that what they have is not the original version, so that the original author's reputation will not be affected by problems that might be introduced by others. Finally, software patents pose a constant threat to the existence of any free program. We wish to make sure that a company cannot effectively restrict the users of a free program by obtaining a restrictive license from a patent holder. Therefore, we insist that any patent license obtained for a version of the library must be consistent with the full freedom of use specified in this license. Most GNU software, including some libraries, are covered by the ordinary General Public License. For such libraries, this license applies. If the library is distributed under a different license, such as the one described above, then a different license applies. When a program is linked with a library, whether statically or via a shared library, the combination of them is legally speaking a combined work, or derivative of the original library. The ordinary General Public License therefore permits such linking only if the entire combination fits its criteria of freedom. The Lesser General Public License permits more lax criteria for linking other code with the library. We call this license the "Lesser" General Public License because it does Less to protect the user's freedom than the ordinary General Public License. It also provides other free software developers Less of an advantage over competing non-free programs. These disadvantages are the reason we use the ordinary General Public License for many libraries. However, the Lesser license provides advantages in certain special circumstances. For example, on rare occasions, there may be a special need to encourage the widest possible use of a certain library, so that it becomes a de-facto standard. To achieve this, non-free programs must be allowed to use the library. A more frequent case is that a free library does the same job as widely used non-free libraries. In this case, there is little to gain by limiting the free library to free software only, so we use the Lesser General Public License. In other cases, permission to use a particular library in non-free programs enables many more people to use the whole GNU operating system, as well as its variants, the GNU/Linux operating system. Although the Lesser General Public License is less protective of the users' freedom, it does ensure that the user of a program that is linked with the library has the freedom and the wherewithal to run that program as she or he sees fit, for copying, modification and distribution, and to make derivative works that include the library. If the library is distributed in source form, it is required to include the library, or a portion of it, in the source code of the program. If the library is distributed in object form, it is required to include information on how to obtain the source code for any part of the library, so that users can follow these terms. The library must be accompanied by a copy of this License. Each licensee is addressed as "you". A "library" means a collection of software functions and/or data prepared so as to be conveniently linked with application programs (which use some of those functions and data) to form executables. The "Library", below, refers to any such software library or work which has been distributed under these terms. A "work based on the Library" means either the Library or any derivative work, under copyright law, that is to say, a work containing a portion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated straightforwardly into another language.

(Hereinafter, "translation is included without limitation in the term "modification"") "Source code" for a work means the preferred form of the work for making modifications to it. For a library, complete source code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilation and installation of the library. Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of running a program using the Library is not restricted, and output from such a program is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Library (independent of the use of the Library in a tool for writing it). Whether that is true depends on what the Library does and what the program that uses the Library does. 1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Library's complete source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty, keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty; and distribute a copy of this License along with the Library. You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee. 2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Library or any portion of it, thus forming a work based on the Library, and copy and distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions: a) The modified work must itself be a software library. b) You must cause the files modified to carry prominent notices stating that you changed the files and the date of any change. c) You must cause the whole of the work to be licensed at no charge to all third parties under the terms of this License. d) If a factotum of the modified work is derived from the work, then the factotum must be an aggregate of the two. Otherwise, if the modified work is a separate work based on the Library, the user must not call it a "library". e) You must cause the user to receive the library through the same means you chose to receive it. f) You must cause the user to willfully accept the terms of this License. 3. You may opt to apply the terms of the ordinary GNU General Public License instead of this License. To do this, you must alter all the notices to refer to the ordinary GNU General Public License, and to make clear that any user can redistribute the file through a different license. You must copy or distribute the file according to the terms of the ordinary GNU General Public License. Any file you modify, must similarly modify the object code. Each file must contain a notice which says that it contains parts of a program covered by this License. If a file contains a notice that it is not covered by this License, such file must be provided under the terms of one of the other licenses described in this section. You must make sure that, if you use the library, you also license the whole of the program under this license, and not under any other license. If a program that uses the library is a work based on the library, the user of the program may be granted the rights of distribution and modification. If you link a copy of this library with another work to produce an executable, that does not make the other work based on this library a derivative of this library, so the user may link any program with this library, and distribute the results without having to refer to the terms of this License. 4. You may copy and distribute the library or a portion or derivative of it under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1.2 and above on a medium customarily used for software interchange. If distribution of object code is made by offering access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the source code from the same place satisfies the requirement to distribute the source code, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the source along with the object code. 5. A program that contains no derivative of any portion of the Library, but is designed to work with the Library by being compiled or linked with it, is called a "work that uses the Library". Such a work, in isolation, is not a derivative work of the Library, and therefore falls outside the scope of this License. However, linking a "work that uses the Library" with the Library creates an executable that is a derivative of the Library (because it contains portions of the Library), rather than a "work that uses the library". The executable is therefore covered by this License. This makes it possible to start up a new work that uses the Library, add your own code, and distributing the executable produced. It is perfectly legal to redistribute such a program, if you do nothing else more than link it with the library even though the source code is not provided. This is especially significant if the work can be redistributed without or with little effort. 6. If the source code is available for download over the Internet, then users are encouraged to download and redistribute the source code with the object code, so that the user can easily link the source code with the object code. The headers in the source code define the interface that the library provides. If the source code does not permit the user to link the object code and the library code together, this is not a problem, because the user does not have to link them. Thus the user can link the library code with the object code, and put those two files in a different place where the program includes the library code, but the program still uses the library interface as intended. That the library is combined with the object code in a single file does not affect this fact. It is perfectly legal to do this, and has the effect of distributing the library file and the object code file separately, but lessening the likelihood that your program will be construed as a derivative of the library. 7. You may place library facilities that are a work based on the Library side-by-side in a single library together with other library facilities not covered by this License. a) Accompany the combined library with a copy of the same work based on the Library, uncombined with any other library facilities. This must be distributed under the terms of the Sections above. b) Give prominent notice with the combined library of the fact that part of it is a work based on the Library, and explaining where to find the accompanying uncombined form of the same work. 8. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, link with, or distribute the Library as void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License. However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance. 9. You are not required to accept this License, since you may not have signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or distribute the library or its derivatives. These actions are prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by modifying or distributing the library or any work based on it, you accept this License. 10. If you do not accept this License, you do not have the right to redistribute it. If you receive a copy of the library, or work based on the library, from a third party who can be identified, and which does not redistribute it under this License, then you must either return it to the third party, or delete it. 11. If you do not redistribute the library under this License, you must delete it from your computer system. 12. If the distribution and/or use of the Library is restricted in certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the original copyright holder who places the Library under this License may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not restricted in that case. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as if written in the body of this License. 13. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the Lesser General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns. Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Library specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Library does not specify a license version number, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software Foundation. 14. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Library into other free programs whose distribution conditions are incompatible with these, write to the author to ask for permission. For further information about copyright in other programs, please contact the author or the Free Software Foundation, Inc., 59 Temple Place, Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307 USA. Also add information on how to contact you on electronic and paper mail. You should also get a copy of the GNU Lesser General Public License along with this library; if not, write to the Free Software Foundation, Inc., 59 Temple Place, Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307 USA. Also add information on how to contact you on electronic and paper mail. You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or your school, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the library, if necessary. Here is a sample; alter the names: Yoyodyne, Inc., hereby disclaims all copyright interest in the library "Frob" (a library for tweaking knobs) written by James Random Hacker, signature of Ty Coon, President of Vice That's all there is to it!

GNU LESSER GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE ===== Version 3, 29 June 2007 Copyright (C) 2007 Free Software Foundation, Inc. <<http://fsf.org/>> Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copies of this license document, but changing it is not allowed. This version of the GNU Lesser General Public License incorporates the terms and conditions of version 3 of the GNU General Public License, supplemented by the additional permissions listed below. 0. Additional Definitions. As used herein, "this License" refers to version 3 of the GNU Lesser General Public License, and the "GNU GPL" refers to version 3 of the GNU General Public License. "The Library" refers to a covered work governed by this License, other than an Application or a Combined Work as defined below. An "Application" is any work that makes use of an interface provided by the Library, but which is not otherwise based on the Library. Defining a subclass of a class defined by the Library is deemed a mode of using an interface provided by the Library. A "Combined Work" is a work produced by combining or linking an Application with the Library. The particular version of the Library with which the Combined Work was made is also called the "Linked Version". The "Minimal Corresponding Source" for a Combined Work means the Corresponding Source for the Combined Work, excluding any source code for portions of the Combined Work that are not part of the Application. The "Corresponding Application Code" for a Combined Work means the object code and/or source code for the Combined Work, plus any part of the Application that is not part of the Combined Work, but which is combined with the Combined Work in a way that requires the use of the Application in order to make use of the Combined Work. 1. Source Code. a) You must make available the source code for the Library in its original form, so that users can easily reconvene or relink it with the Library. You may not make objects out of the Library and/or combine it with your own code and sell a combined product. 2. Combining Modified Versions. If you modify a copy of the Library, and/or in your modifications, a facility refers to a function or data to be supplied by an Application that uses the facility still operates, and performs whatever part of its purpose remains meaningful, * a) under this License, provided that you make a good faith effort to ensure that, in the event an unmodified application does not supply the function or data, the facility still operates, and performs whatever part of its purpose remains meaningful, * b) under this License, provided that if the incorporated material is not limited to numerical parameters, data structure layouts and accessors, or small macros, inline functions and templates (ten or fewer lines in length), you do both of the following: * a) Give prominent notice with each copy of the object code that the Library is used in it and that the Library and its use are covered by this License. * b) Accompany the object code with a copy of the GNU GPL and this license document. * c) For a Combined Work that displays copyright notices during execution, include the copyright notice for the Library among these notices, as well as a reference directing the user to the copies of the GNU GPL and this license document. * d) Do one of the following: * 0) Convey the Minimal Corresponding Source under the terms of this License, and the Corresponding Application Code in a form suitable for, and under terms that permit, the user to recombine or relink the Application with a modified version of the Linked Version, to produce a modified Combined Work, in the manner specified by section 6 of the GNU GPL for conveying Corresponding Source. * 1) Use a suitable shared library mechanism for linking with the Library. A suitable mechanism is one that (a) uses at run time a copy of the Library already present on the user's computer system, and (b) will operate properly with a modified version of the Library that is interface-compatible with the Linked Version. * e) Provide Installation Information, but only if you would otherwise be required to provide such information under section 6 of the GNU GPL, and only to the extent that such information is necessary to install and execute a modified version of the Combined Work produced by recombining or relinking the Application with a modified version of the Linked Version. (If you use option 4d1, the Installation Information must accompany the Minimal Corresponding Source and Corresponding Application Code.) If you use option 4d1, you must provide the Installation Information in the manner specified by section 6 of the GNU GPL for conveying Corresponding Source. * 5) Combined Libraries. You may place library facilities that are a work based on the Library side by side in a single library together with other library facilities that are not Applications and are not covered by this License, and in such cases, if no overall copyright is explicitly specified for all the code in one or more of the libraries, then each library facility itself must specify the copyright terms of the library facility itself. * 6) Preobligation. Give prominent notice with the combined library that part of it is a work based on the Library, and explaining where to find the accompanying uncombined form of the same work. 6. Revised Versions of the GNU Lesser General Public License. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the GNU Lesser General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns. Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Library as you received it specifies that a certain numbered version of the GNU Lesser General Public License "or any later version" applies to it, you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that published version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Library as you received it specifies that a proxy's public statement of acceptance of any version is permanent authorization for you to choose that version for the Library, you may use that version. 7. Corresponding Source. a) You must make available the corresponding source code for the Library in its original form, so that users can easily reconvene or relink it with the Library. You may not make objects out of the Library and/or combine it with your own code and sell a combined product. The Library must be most software and open-source works designed to take away your freedom to share and change the works. By contrast, the GNU General Public License is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change all versions of a program—to make sure it remains free software for all its users. We, the Free Software Foundation, use the GNU General Public License for most of our software; it applies also to any other work released this way by its authors. You can apply it to your programs, too. When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for them if you wish). That you receive source code or can get it if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in new free programs, and that you know you can do these things. To protect your rights, we need to prevent others from denying you these rights or asking you to surrender the rights. Therefore, you have certain responsibilities if you distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it. Responsibilities to respect the freedom of others. For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratis or for a fee, you must pass on to the recipients the same freedoms that you had. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. And you must show them these terms so they know what the license says, and why it protects the user. For example, if you distribute modified versions of the Library, you must give the recipient the source code for the version you modified, so that it is a meaningful modification of the original. Otherwise, you are effectively publishing a copy that cannot be modified, and the original author is protected as well. The Free Software Foundation explicitly explains that there is no warranty for this free software. For both users' and authors' sake, the GPL requires that modules of the program be marked as changed, so that their problems will not be attributed erroneously to authors of previous versions. Some devices are designed to deny users access to install or run modified versions of the software inside them, although the manufacturer can do so. This is fundamentally incompatible with the aim of protecting users' freedom to change the software. The systematic pattern of such abuse occurs in the area of products for individuals to use, which is precisely where it is most unacceptable. Therefore, we have designed this version of the GPL to prohibit the practice for those products. If such problems arise substantially in other domains, we stand ready to extend this provision to those domains in future versions of the GPL, as needed to protect the freedom of users. Finally, every program is threatened constantly by software patents. States should not allow patents to restrict development and use of software on general-purpose computers, but in those that do, we wish to avoid the special danger that patents applied to a free program could make it effectively proprietary. To prevent this, the GPL assures that patents cannot be used to render the program non-free. The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and modification follow. TERMS AND CONDITIONS 0. Definitions. "This License" refers to version 3 of the GNU General Public License. "Copyright" also means "copyright-like laws that apply to other kinds of works, such as semiconductor devices, integrated circuits, or互動式媒体." "Work" means any kind of work, except for documents that are the sole medium for the expression of ideas. "Object code" is any non-source form of a work. "A Standard Interface" means an interface that is either an official standard defined by a recognized standards body, or in the case of a minor interface, one that is widely used and understood by people working with that language. "The System Libraries" of an executable work include all other work that is explicitly linked with it. (Ordinary shared libraries do not count, because linking is done by name, not by address.) "A Major Component" is a Major Component, but which is not itself a combined work made specifically to be distributed together with the Library. "A Covered Work" means either the unmodified Program or a work based on the Program. To "propagate" a work means to do anything with it that, without permission, would make you directly or secondarily liable for infringement under applicable copyright law, excepting the use of a computer to copy or to display the work. An interactive user interface displays "Appropriate Legal Notices" to the extent that it includes a convenient and prominently visible feature that (1) displays an appropriate copyright notice, and (2) tells the user that there is no warranty for the work (except to the extent that warranties are provided). That licensees incorporate the work into secondary works that are not covered by this License, and then modify and/or distribute those secondary works, does not mean that the original work was modified or distributed by the licensee, and does not mean that those secondary works are covered by this License. 1. Work made available under this License must display an appropriate copyright notice, and make clear that it is covered by this License. You must not misrepresent the nature of the work prior to distribution, without permission from the copyright holders. 2. You may convey a covered work under this License if you: a) Give a copy of the corresponding source code in the standard form provided by the copyright holders, and make the same available in a place指定由你选择, so that it即可被轻易地得到. b) Convey the object code in the standard form provided by the copyright holders, and make the same available in a place指定由你选择, so that it即可被轻易地得到. c) Convey the
